SUMMARY

A 3rd year NT who has started 38 of 46 career games including starting and playing in 14 games in 2015, his 3rd season in Bill Davis' base 3-4 defense. Used primarily as a OT Nose tackle while seeing snaps at both 1T and 2T where he was charged with both 1 and 2 gap responsibility. Missed the last two weeks of the season due to a left calf strain. Has solid height and good weight along with good arm length and hand size and possesses adequate athletic ability, explosiveness, quickness and agility as well as good balance. Good vs the run, comes out of 3 point stance with good pad level, good ability to diagnose the run and match angles of blockers, has good UOH and hand placement to control C/OG vs Zone and Gap runs, leverages the ball carrier from both a 1 and 2 gap responsibility and funnels the RB into a teammate. Vs Zone run, uses good pad level and play strength to push blocker back forcing runner to cut up, processes cut by the runner quickly, and does a solid job to extend his arms and use momentum of OL moving to shed the blocker and make the tackle. As a pass rusher, has a good ability to get his hands on the inside of the breast plate of the C/OG and uses good pad level to have lower leverage on his bull rush to create solid push on the OL to collapse the pocket. Good physical toughness, willing to take on any size or skill level of player physically at any time in the game. Adequate upfield burst, displays an adequate ability to get off quickly at the snap of the ball and will chop his feet and limit his explosiveness and the amount of ground he can cover within his first three steps. Adequate pass rushing overall, has a predictable pass rush plan as he goes to the bull rush a majority of the time, on limited attempts showed a marginal ability to perform a rip, swim, or club move to get pass the C/OG, and has an adequate ability to close on the QB in a quick manner once getting past the OL. Marginal pursuit, adequate effort and desire to get after a ball carrier that is not within his gap, has a marginal ability to take proper angles on ball carriers, and has marginal range due to lack of effort, adequate quickness and adequate explosiveness. Adequate competitive toughness and mental toughness, did not show any extra concerted effort to make a play in key moments of the game and gives inconsistent effort play in and play out including lazy pass rush attempts on stunts and twists and giving up on plays that are run away from him. Overall, a starting Nose Tackle you can win with in a base 3-4 capable of playing the 1 tech in a 4-3 defense. Defends well against both Zone and Power runs. Does not get consistent pressure on the QB as a pass rusher.
