BEST	Run Defense, Gap Integrity, Play Strength, Stalemate Double Teams, Angles in Pursuit, and Competitive Toughness

WORST	AA, Pass Rush, UOH in Pass Rush, and Upfield Burst.

PROJECTION	Two down 1-Tech or NT that is best utilized vs the run. Displays good gap integrity and mental processing to key and diagnose run/pass with good UOH to shed blocks and good vision to locate the ball carrier with solid tackling ability and good play strength and leverage to take on double teams. Lacks the AA and the upfield burst to create a pass rush limiting him on passing downs.
------------	---

SCHEME FIT	Best fit as a 1-tech utilized in a 4-3 One-Gapping scheme as a two down player and can play NT in Two-Gapping 3-4 scheme.

SUMMARY

6th year DT that has started 71 of 83 career games, including 14 starts of 15 games in 2018 after being signed during week 2 of the regular season. 1st year in DC Paul Guenther's aggressive 4-3 defense where he primarily lined up as a 1-tech and Nose tackle, while occasionally a 3-tech and 2i-tech and he was asked to 1 Gap and used primarily on running downs. Solid height and very good weight, with a thick build with solid arm length and adequate hand size, displays overall adequate athletic ability, with solid lateral agility and adequate balance, foot speed, quickness, and explosiveness. Good mental processing to key and diagnose run/pass, with a good understanding of blocking schemes with solid awareness against screens. Good against the run, with good pad level and leverage with good play strength with good eye discipline and a good understanding VS Gap and Zone schemes to understand the blocker's role on that run. Displays solid lateral agility and quickly processes plays to beat reach blocks. Displays good gap integrity vs the run being able to leverage his gap and will hold his ground vs double teams not easily being moved. Good UOH vs the run with good timing and placement against reach, base and drive blocks with good hand strength to control the OL with good hand strength, with good ability to locate the ball carrier and disengage blocks with good arm extension and hand strength and finishes with solid tackling ability. Good play strength able to control OL with solid or less play strength at the POA with good lower and upper body strength and uses good leverage and pad level along with good core and leg strength to stalemate double teams to free up a LBer. Displays good competitive toughness showing good effort and good physical toughness to battle against double teams consistently and good mental toughness on critical goalline situations to stuff runs. Good Pursuit, displaying a good effort chasing plays down the field or down the LOS, takes good angles vs O/S Zone runs on playside and backside with solid range moving laterally to make a tackle on the ball carrier and will move through traffic well. Adequate upfield burst, with adequate quickness and explosiveness on run and passing plays limiting his ability to challenge OL with AA and beat them quickly. Marginal pass rusher, adequate burst and AA limiting his explosiveness and gets off the line with adequate pad level and lacks a plan to beat OL with poor bend on stunts and twists and adequate UOH showing adequate placement having his hands out side of the chest and shows adequate timing allowing OL to get there hands on him first while pass rushing being completely neutralized in the passing game. Overall, he is a two down 1-tech or NT that is best utilized vs the run. Displays good gap integrity and mental processing to key and diagnose run/pass, with good UOH to shed blocks and vision to locate the ball carrier with solid tackling ability and good play strength and leverage to take on double teams. Lacks the AA to create a pass rush and adequate upfield burst limiting him on passing downs.
