SUMMARY

Started 58 out of 94 games in his seven-year NFL career. Drafted 28rd overall in 2011 by the New Orleans Saints. Played under HC Sean Payton and OC Pete Carmichael all seven years in an Air Coryell, vertical offense with a strong inside run scheme. Played as a role type RB his entire career except for 2014 and 2015 when he was the primary RB in the Saints offense. Shared the backfield with rookie Alvin Kamara and played on 55% of offensive snaps while Kamara played on 45%. Used in IZ/OZ, Singleback & doubleback sets, OZ stretch and on the goal line including other short yardage situations. Good height and weight with good muscular thickness in lower body. Solid mental processing, reads the defense and understands safety assignments prior to snap. Shows good patience, allows the center/guard to set up gap assignments/reads the second level defenders prior to committing to gap assignment/ processes defenders angle of pursuit in OZ/OZ Stretch to cutback and redirect to a new gap if needed. Solid COD/ plants-and-goes with the ability to drop his weight and show good ankle flexion to cut with solid suddenness in the second level. Good play strength, lowers shoulders, leveraging lower body power to engage contact and break arm tackles and lower body tackles, keeping feet moving through contact, displaying good competitive toughness to gain yards after contact/consistently falls forward and shows toughness as a solid finisher. Good receiving ability out of the flat and on short routes within 5 yards. Uses second and third level blocks to navigate through traffic to gain YAC. Solid pass protector, shows the willingness to leverage play strength and sustain edge and interior impact with good balance and body control. Marginal ball security, has 10 fumbles in the last four years and 3 in 2017. Two fumbles came in one game vs Chicago in week 8. Adequate creativity as a runner when gaps close and defenders press. Displays adequate AA/ adequate burst and acceleration to get to the perimeter on Stretch and OZ plays. Doesn't trust speed to break to the edge on Run-Option plays, instead breaks to gap C even when gap is compromised. Overall is a solid starting RB that benefits from being in a role. A good complimentary back is how he excels. Has the size, play strength and vision to be productive in a Gap/Power run scheme that emphasizes the passing game. Can be used as a reliable receiver in short yardage situations.
